

I am a flight instructor and aviation business owner. I urge you to restore transient general aviation access to the following airports: College Park Airport (CGS), Potomac Airpark (VKX) and Hyde Field (W32). General aviation is vital to the US economy as well as the Washington DC area.